Dear Parents,

Chestnut had their class assembly this morning, based on the classic children's novel 'Flat Stanley'. For those of you who don't know the story, a bulletin board fell on Stanley during the night, and now he is only half an inch thick! The children had worked really hard to bring his adventures to life in their assembly which was enjoyed by everyone.

Our 'Leave your Lunchbox at Home' day was a great success and it was lovely to see so many of the children enjoying a hot meal together. I hope this day will encourage many more of them to have school meals instead of a packed lunch. There are always different options on offer, so the children have the opportunity to try lots of lovely new dishes.

Next Friday, 9th October, is our Harvest Festival Funky Friday. This is a mufti day and children can come into school wearing non uniform but we are asking for a donation of tinned or non-perishable foods for the Harvest Festival. All the food items that are received will be shared between Woking Lions and the Salvation Army, two very worthy causes. The children will also be working on a variety of activities around the theme of Harvest.

We have been experiencing some problems with parking in and around the school. Our car park is very small and we are only able to offer parking to a limited number of staff. Please do not park in the entrance to our car park, even if you are just popping in for a few minutes. Please also be considerate when parking your car on the road, remembering not to block any entrances or dropped kerbs. Your co-operation on this matter is appreciated.

We say goodbye to Mrs Cathy Slade next week after 15 years loyal service to Sythwood School. Many of you will know Cathy as the first friendly face which greets you when entering our school and I know she has been a great source of help and support to many parents and children throughout the years, so I am sure you will want to join me in wishing her well in her new career. Her colleagues and I will miss her greatly.
